In the bleak midwin-ter
An-gels and arch-gels What can I give him
frost-y wind-gath-ered

poor as I there am

earth stood hard as i-ron che-ru-bim and se-ra-phim if I were a shep-herd
wat-er like in a stone
I would give the air
a lamb

snow had fal-len snow on snow but his mo-ther on-ly if I were a wise man
snow in her mai-den on snow I would do my part bliss

wor-shipped the Be-lo-ved yet I can I give Him
long with-give long Him a go a kiss
my heart
